→ SUMMER 2009 EVENTS

The Conflict Center invites you to join us this summer for a series of workshops designed to enhance relationships, adding to your bottom line and increasing your staff's happiness.

BUILDING A RESTORATIVE COMMUNITY

Wednesday, June 3rd, 9 am - 4 pm

Learn how to integrate Restorative Justice principles into your classroom management regime to help students explore empathy, repair damaged relationships, and solve problems--creating a highly optimized learning environment and decreasing stress amongst students and teachers. Cost $149

INTERGENERATIONAL AWARENESS IN THE WORKPLACE

Monday, June 15th, 9 am - 12 pm

Companies can no longer ignore understanding the generational differences amongst workers in recruiting, maintaining, and rewarding top talent. Learn the unique needs and values of each generation and how this affects communication, teamwork, and conflict in your company. Cost $79

EFFECTIVELY MANAGING CONFLICT IN THE WORKPLACE

Monday, June 22nd, 9 am - 4 pm

Learn practical leadership and communication skills to help co-workers or clients work with instead of against each other. We will explore stress and anger in the workplace, how to effectively communicate needs, and why 95% of our attendees leave being better listeners. Cost $149

Free Mini-Learning & Discussion Series

Free and open to the public opportunities to discuss important topics in our community with The Conflict Center's highly skilled staff. Come share your ideas and learn something! Call us to register.

PUNISHMENT IN OUR SOCIETY

Wednesday, July 8th, 10-12 pm
with Vickie Samland

What are the implications of punishment in our society and is it necessary? What are the alternatives?

BULLYING VS CONFLICT

Wednesday, July 15th, 10-12 pm
with Brenda McChesney

What are the differences between bullying and conflict and what can we do to help our students and children deal with bullying?

TOLERANCE & TRANSFORMATIVE MEDIATION

Wednesday, July 22nd, 10-12 pm
with Pearl Bell

Come see how mediators can empower the parties in a conflict to use recognition and transform seemingly intractable conflicts.
