

READING FOR PEACE BOOKLIST

the Conflictcenter

Book Title	Author	Grade Level	Synopsis	Questions	# of copies
Alexander and the Terrible Horrible No Good Very Bad Day	Viorst, Judith	K-4th	Everything goes wrong for Alexander all day and he wants to go to Australia to live. His mother reminds him that even in Australia people have bad days.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Tell me about one of your bad days. 2. Have you ever wanted to run away to someplace else? 3. What can you do to make the day better? 	4
Androcles and the Lion	Baldwin, James	5th-8th	Androcles is a slave in Rome, and his master treats him very poorly. He runs away to a cave where he befriends a lion in need of his help. He is found and forced to fight a lion as punishment for running away, but when his lion friend is the one he is set to fight, he shares their story of friendship.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Why did Androcles run away? How did he feel when he ran? 2. What made Androcles want to help out the lion? How do you think the lion felt? 3. How did the lion help Androcles? 4. How do you think he was able to be so kind even though he was treated so badly by his master? 	1
A Bad Case of Stripes	Shannon, David	K-5th	Camilla loves lima beans but won't eat them because she's afraid of being made fun of. Soon she begins to stripes, calling the wrong kind of attention to herself. Her problem is solved when she decides being made fun of by eating lima beans can't be any worse than turning into stripes.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Why do you think Camilla wanted to impress her classmates? 2. What have you ever done to try to impress someone? 3. Do you worry about what other people think of you? Why or why not? 4. How does it make you feel when someone else tries to impress you? 	2
Baseball Saved Us	Mochizuki, Ken	3rd-5th	A Japanese-American Boy in an internment camp in WWII is helped by baseball.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What do you think it felt like to be in an internment camp? 2. What do you think other people were thinking of the Japanese? Was this true? 3. Calling people names can hurt. In the book, being called a "Jap" hurt the boy. Why do you think some people use racial and ethnic slurs? 	2

Be Kind	Pat Zietlow Miller	PreK-2nd	This book shows wonderful examples of what it means when adults say to children, "Be kind". From doing simple things like saying thank you, to sticking up for a friend who is being bullied. These acts of kindness can make a difference.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What does it mean to be "kind"? 2. What were some of the examples of kindness in this book? 3. Have you seen any acts of kindness today or in the past few days? 4. What might you do in your life to be kind to other people? 	3
Be Polite and Kind	Meiners, Cheri J.	PreK-1st	This book teaches the basics of good manners and gracious behavior. When children are courteous, respectful, and kind, other people enjoy being around them. Politeness helps people get along.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Pg. 1-3: How do you show people they are important to you? 2. Pg. 4-15: What does it mean to be polite and kind? How does it feel when someone says polite, kind words to you? How does it feel when someone is not polite? 3. Pg. 16-27: What is respect? 4. Pg. 28-31: Why is it important to be polite and kind? 	1
Be Who You Are	Parr, Todd	PreK-2nd	Whoever you are, however you are different, be proud of who you are!	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What is one adjective that would describe you? 2. What do you like to eat? What music do you like to listen to? 3. What is your family like? What language or languages do you speak? 	1
Being Bullied	Petty, Kate & Firmin, Charlotte	PreK-1st	Rita is being bullied at school by Bella. The other kids begin to side with Bella. The teacher does not seem to realize the situation. Rita's mom sees her despair and helps her deal with the situation and improve her self-confidence.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. How do you think Rita felt when she was being bullied? 2. How can you or your friends deal with bullies at school? 3. How was Rita's mom able to know that Rita was upset and something was wrong? 4. Is it okay to tell on a bully? 	1
Best Friends on Wheels	Shirley, Debra	1st-3rd	A young girl relates all the ways she and her best friend are alike, even though her best friend uses a wheelchair.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Do you know anyone with special needs? 2. How do you think it makes them feel to be treated differently? 3. How would you treat people with disabilities? Why? 	1

A Big Guy Took My Ball	Willems, Mo	PreK-3rd	Little guys, BIG guys, all of us have a story. When we take time to talk to and listen to other people, we learn that we are all in this life together.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Who are the main characters in this book? Describe them. 2. Who was the Big Guy? What was his problem? 3. How did Elephant and Piggie and Whale work together to solve their problem? 	2
Boy	Cummings, Phil and Devries, Shane	K-5th	This is a story about a king, his knights, a dragon and a boy that is deaf. Do you know what being deaf means? How do people who are deaf communicate? (Sign Language- and in this book the authors use the term “dancing hands”) Watch and listen carefully to see how Boy solves a really big problem for everyone.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Why was everybody fighting? 2. How could Boy tell there was a problem? 3. How did Boy help the king, knights and dragon solve their problem? (They listened to each other’s perceptions of the situation.) 4. How could you be like Boy? (Help people communicate and listen to each other) 	1
Bullies Never Win	Cuyler, Margery	K-5th	Jessica is a worrier. She worries about everything. But in Mr. Martin's class she has her biggest worry: Brenda Bailey. Brenda is a bully, and she won't leave Jessica alone. It worries Jessica so much she can't even sleep. Can Jessica stand up to Brenda?	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Why was Brenda Jessica's big worry? 2. Do you worry about things? What kinds of things bother you the most? 3. How did Jessica deal with Brenda's bullying? Did it work? Could she have done anything else? 4. If you see someone being bullied, how can you help? 	1
Bully	Seeger, Laura Vaccaro	PreK-2nd	Few words, but a great message! Bully is not kind to others, but realizes his mistakes, and decides to try and be a good friend again.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Who is the bully in this story? 2. Who was Bully being mean to in this story? 3. How do you think the other animals felt when they were being bullied? 4. Has someone ever bullied you? How did that make you feel? 	2

Can I Join Your Club?	Kelley, John and Laberis, Steph	1st-3rd	Duck wants to join a club, but he is having a hard time being accepted. How would you solve this problem? Read to find out what Duck does.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Why did Duck want to be in a club? 2. What does “denied” mean? Why was Duck always “denied”? 3. What makes “Our Club” so full of members? (Everyone is included.) 4. Are you on a team, or in a club? How does it feel? Does everyone feel the same way? How can you make someone feel accepted in a group? 	1
Can We help?	Ancona, George	K-3rd	Excellent ideas for all people to figure out how we can help other - donating food and clothing to shelters, knitting hats and scarves for homeless people, picking up trash, planting trees, and the list goes on!	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. When the middle school students were helping the younger students, how do you think this made the middle school students feel? The younger students? 2. Which helping idea would you like to try? 3. What are some ways you already help people? 	1
Come With Me	Holly Mi McGhee	K-3rd	After watching the news recount events of anger and hatred, the little girl asks her dad and mom what she might do to make the world a better place. Both her dad and mom take her out into their community to show her how people can treat each other with respect and kindness, and, like her dad and mom, she can also do small acts of kindness toward other people and know that doing those things matter.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What acts of kindness did the little girl's dad show her? 2. What acts of kindness did the little girl's mom show her? 3. What does this sentence mean? "Because two people together are stronger than one" 	1

Confessions of a Former Bully	Trudy Ludwig	3rd-5th	Katie is a girl who never thought of herself as having bullying behaviors, but after some kids report her to the principal for teasing a classmate, she writes a journal of her journey through facing consequences and changing her ways of treating other people.	You might read the previous summary and then choose a few pages to share with your group. Look for the different headings in red letters, for example, What Makes A Friend A Good Friend?	1
Crow Boy	Yashima, Taro	2nd-5th	Chibi is a small shy boy who comes into town to go to school. He is isolated and made fun of by other children until a new teacher comes and helps uncover Chibi's special interests and talents. Chibi earns the nickname Crow Boy and also wins the respect of the other children.	1. Do you remember how you felt the first day you came to school? 2. Why Was it hard for Chibi to make friends? 3. How did the new teacher, Mr. Isobe, help Chibi? 4. What are some of your special skills or talents?	2
Emmanuel's Dream	Thompson, Lauri Ann	K-4th	A true story in Ghana, West Africa. A boy with only one strong leg, bicycled 400 miles across Ghana to send a powerful message - disability does not mean inability.	1. How did Emmanuel handle going to school? 2. What happened after his mother got sick? 3. How did people react to Emmanuel when he was riding across Ghana? 4. Read author's note on last page to find out what Emmanuel is doing now?	1
Everybody Cooks Rice	Dooley, Norah	K-4th	Carrie is searching for her younger brother Anthony because it is time for dinner and he is nowhere around. As Carrie stops at the home of her neighbors to ask about Anthony, she learns that even though all of her neighbors are cooking rice, they all cook rice in very different ways, and they are all delicious.	1. How does your family cook rice? What is your favorite rice dish? 2. In your opinion, which way of cooking rice was the most different to you?	1

Everybody Feels Angry	Bingham, Jane	PreK-2nd	Everyone feels certain feelings like anger, sadness, happiness, and being afraid, that is what connects us as human beings. Each of these 4 books helps children comprehend and cope with difficult happenings in their lives, and the feelings that often accompany them. Talking about these feelings can help all of us, not only children, build bridges of support and hope among us.	At the end of each book is a glossary and a note to parents and teachers, please refer to these pages for further discussion.	1
Everybody Feels Happy	Bingham, Jane	PreK-2nd	Everyone feels certain feelings like anger, sadness, happiness, and being afraid, that is what connects us as human beings. Each of these 4 books helps children comprehend and cope with difficult happenings in their lives, and the feelings that often accompany them. Talking about these feelings can help all of us, not only children, build bridges of support and hope among us.	At the end of each book is a glossary and a note to parents and teachers, please refer to these pages for further discussion.	1
Everybody Feels Sad	Bingham, Jane	PreK-2nd	Everyone feels certain feelings like anger, sadness, happiness, and being afraid, that is what connects us as human beings. Each of these 4 books helps children comprehend and cope with difficult happenings in their lives, and the feelings that often accompany them. Talking about these feelings can help all of us, not only children, build bridges of support and hope among us.	At the end of each book is a glossary and a note to parents and teachers, please refer to these pages for further discussion.	1

Everybody Feels Scared	Bingham, Jane	PreK-2nd	Everyone feels certain feelings like anger, sadness, happiness, and being afraid, that is what connects us as human beings. Each of these 4 books helps children comprehend and cope with difficult happenings in their lives, and the feelings that often accompany them. Talking about these feelings can help all of us, not only children, build bridges of support and hope among us.	At the end of each book is a glossary and a note to parents and teachers, please refer to these pages for further discussion.	1
Far Apart, Close in Heart	Becky Birtha	1st-4th	When a child's loved one is incarcerated, that child undergoes a myriad of emotions. This book helps children feel like they are not alone, and gives suggestions about how to cope with such experiences	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. When a child's mom or dad is in jail, he or she can have lots of questions. How might someone have these questions answered? 2. How could a young person choose to handle his or her frustrations over a parent's incarceration? 3. If you knew that a friend was undergoing a parent in jail, how could you help?
Feathers and Fools	Fox, Mem	K-5th	Peacocks and Swans grow afraid of their differences and end up destroying each other. One peacock egg and a swan egg remain and decide to be friends.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What were they afraid might happen? 2. Is it scary to be different? Why? 	2
First Day in Grapes	Perez, L. King	3rd-6th	Chico and his family move a lot, picking fruits and vegetables. He starts a new school every year, and the other kids pick on him often. On his first day in 3rd grade when things start going very well, two 4th grade bullies confront him. Chico finds his strength and stands up to them, and also learns to be proud of his strengths.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Have you ever started a new school? What was it like? 2. Chico was very proud of his math skills. What is something you're proud of? 3. When Chico stood up to the bullies, other students supported him. What do you think "strength in numbers" means? Who can be there for you too? 	1

Freckleface Strawberry and the Dodgeball Bully	Moore, Julianne	PreK-3rd	Freckleface Strawberry likes the playground, but is scared to play dodgeball because of Windy Pants Patrick, the bully. When she is the last one in the game, she befriends the bully and they can play together without any bullying problems.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What did Freckleface Strawberry do when she was scared? 2. What else could she do to make things better? 3. How can you stand up to a bully? 	1
Good People Everywhere	Gillen, Lynea	PreK-1st	A very positive, uplifting story to encourage children to be aware of the wonderful, caring people in their lives.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Close you eyes and think of the good people in your life. Who is it? What does this person do? How does this person help others? Does this person help you? How? 2. How can you help people in your life? 	1
Grandmama's Pride	Becky Birtha	3rd-6th	This book is a fictional story based on actual events and memories of the author in the South during the 1950's. Sarah Marie and her sister and Mom were visiting her grandmother in the summer. They experienced events that told them that African Americans did not have the same rights as white people. At the same time, Sarah Marie observed how her Grandmama dealt with these happenings, and how people united by the same ideas can make a change.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What were some examples of African Americans not having the same rights as white people in the book? 2. What were a few changes between their first trip to the South, and their second trip to the South? 3. When Sarah Marie was reading the newspaper articles about changing laws and customs, what were some ways people can do this?
Grump, Groan, and Growl	hooks, bell [sic]	PreK-2nd	All of us have grumpy days, when all we can do is groan and growl at the world! Sometimes, just let those feelings be, they will pass and we can go on in a better way.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What does a grumpy face look like? 2. What does a groan sound like? 3. What does and growl look and sound like? 4. When was the last time you felt this way? What did you do to feel better? 	1

Have You Filled Your Bucket Today?	McCloud, Carrl	PreK-3rd	Everyone has an invisible bucket that holds good thoughts and feelings. This book helps children learn how to be bucket fillers by being positive with others. It also helps them recognize that words and actions can make a person a bucket dipper. The goal - to fill buckets each and every day.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. How is your bucket today? 2. Do you think you can fill your own bucket? 3. Can you share a time when you helped fill a bucket? A time when you dipped a bucket? 	1
Henry's Freedom Box	Levine, Ellen	3rd-5th	This is a dramatic book about slavery and the Underground Railroad. Henry is a slave, from birth through adulthood, and endures endless hardships because of it. One day, he realizes that, in order to be free, he could mail himself to the North, where there wasn't slavery, and he could be free.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What are some of the facts that you learned about slavery? About the Underground Railroad? 2. What are some of the hardships in Henry's life? 3. Did Henry accomplish becoming free on his own? If not, who helped him? * You might read the Author's Note on the last page to give students facts about slavery and the Underground Railroad.	1
Hey, Little Ant	Hoose, Phillip & Hannah	K-5th	A young boy faces a dilemma. His friends want him to squash an ant but the ant disagrees. The boy and the ant discuss the situation.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Should the ant get squished? Why or why not? 2. Should the boy think about the ant's feelings? 3. When is it good to listen to your friends and when is it not good to listen to them? 4. Does "might" make "right"? 	4
Horrible Bear	Dyckman, Ame	PreK-3rd	The power of saying "I'm sorry" - a very funny story of a girl and a Bear and how they learned how to figure out how to get along.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What happened to cause the Bear and the girl to not get along? 2. What happened to make the girl decide to say "I'm sorry" to the Bear? 3. How did the Bear react when the girl said that to the Bear? 4. Has a similar situation ever happened to you? What was it like? How did it end? 	1

How Are You Peeling?	Freymann, Saxton	K-5th	Amazing fruit and vegetable art in this book, with the produce carved out to show a feeling or mood.	There are many good questions throughout the book.	2
How Full is Your Bucket?	Roth, Tom & Mary Reckmeyer	1st-4th	Felix is learning about his invisible bucket, when it's full he feels good, when it's empty, he feels terrible. By the end of the story, Felix realizes that the way he treats other people can fill their bucket or empty their bucket.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Explain Grandpa's "invisible bucket" idea. 2. What are some things we might say to other people that might fill their bucket? 3. What are some things we might say or do to other people that might empty their bucket? 4. "How Full Is Your Bucket?" today? Why? 	1
How My Parents Learned to Eat	Friedman, Ina	K-3rd	A young Japanese girl tells how her mother and American father overcame their cultural differences of eating.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Why do you think she was so scared to eat with her boyfriend? 2. Can you think of something else they both could have done instead of being so scared? 	1
How to Be a Friend	Brown, Laurie Krasny and Marc Brown	K-2nd	A book about making friends and keeping them.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What do you do when you are alone? 2. What kinds of activities do you do when you play with someone? 3. What types of things do you do for your friends? 4. What do these words mean: cooperate, compliment, shy, bully? 5. Great ideas on Page 29 about how to settle a disagreement with another person. 	1
How to Take the GRRRR Out of Anger	Elizabeth Verdick	4th+	A great book that can teach older elementary kids how to manage their anger and work with others in a positive way to be able to get along and be empathetic with other people.	Choose any one of the 10 chapters to read and see what you students have to say. A good section on bullying is on Page 79, with 7 suggestions about about ideas for dealing with it.	1

I Am Helen Keller	Brad Meltzer	2nd-4th	A true story written in graphic novel form, this book shows the reader how many challenging obstacles Helen Keller had and how she overcame them and accomplished amazing things in her life.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Can you name a few challenges that Helen Keller had in her life? 2. For each challenge, explain how Helen dealt with these events? 3. What are some of Helen Keller's accomplishments? 4. Do you have challenges in your life? How might you handle these events? 	1
I Am Human, A Book of Empathy	Susan Verde	PreK-3rd	As we grow and learn, we realize how connected we are to each other, making choices that cause sadness and fear to ourselves and others, and also making choices that enable us to be compassionate and empathetic.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What are some ways we hurt others shown in the story? 2. What are some ways we help others shown in the story? 3. Have you ever felt any of these emotions in the story? Describe the situation you were in. What did you learn from this happening? 	1
I Am Sacagawea	Brad Meltzer	2nd-4th	A true story written in graphic novel form, this book highlights the life of Sacagawea, the only female Native American who helped Lewis and Clark navigate the western part of the United States.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What was Sacagawea's life like before she met Lewis and Clark? 2. Sacagawea found her own way, made her own path, and shattered expectations. How did she do those 3 things? How have you found your own way, made your own path, and shattered expectations? 	1
I Can Do Hard Things	Gabi Garcia	PreK-2nd	I can practice peace. I can choose kindness. I can share my gifts with the world. These affirmations are for children and adults alike - they can help us through our daily journey with positive thoughts.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. How do you practice peace? In other words, are there simple things you might do to help other people? 2. What are a few examples of being kind? In your life, what do you do to show kindness to others?
I Like Myself	Beaumont, Karen	PreK-2nd	A book of poetry about self esteem. It encourages students to like everything about themselves, and to value what is inside each of us. Wonderful	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Name two things you like about yourself. 2. What are some ways we can help our friends feel better about themselves? 	1

I Walk With Vanessa	Kerascoet	All Grades	A powerful book without words but full of positive, caring, and empathetic actions. What one girl did that helped to inspire a whole community to stand against bullying.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. After showing the book the first time, go through each page and ask students to narrate in their own words. 2. Who is the bully? Describe that person, how do you think he feels? 3. Vanessa - Identify her feelings throughout the book. 4. Who helped Vanessa? What did she observe? What did she do? 5. Have you ever felt like Vanessa? Have you ever felt like the bully? 6. Could you help someone like Vanessa? Could you help someone like the bully? How? 	1
I'm Gonna Like Me	Curtis, Jamie Lee	PreK-2nd	Using two different viewpoints, this story helps the reader see that no matter who we are, we all have value, uniqueness and self worth.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Finish this sentence: "I'm gonna like me when..." 2. How can we help other people like themselves? 	1
I'm Sad	Black, Michael Ian	PreK-3rd	A wonderfully funny book about being sad! When Flamingo tells his friends that he is sad, they try to cheer him up, but nothing works. Eventually, his friends learn that even if they aren't able to cheer Flamingo up, they learn that the most important matter is to stay by his side.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What makes you feel sad? 2. What makes you feel better? 3. Why are friends important when you feel sad? 	1
In My Heart - A Book of Feelings	Witek, Jo	PreK-2nd	Wonderful illustrations and words to help young people identify and explain feelings, how it feels to be happy, brave, mad, heart-broken, hopeful, silly, and	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. How does your heart feel today? 2. What new feeling did you learn about? 	1

It's Okay to be Different	Parr, Todd	PreK-2nd	Another wonderful book that inspires all of us, kids and adults alike, to honor their individuality through being self-confident and accepting others the way they are.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Pick a two or three pages, and ask students about that sentence and what it means. For example, you might choose the page that says, "It's okay to say NO to bad things". Ask students, so what does this sentence mean? 2. In your own words, what was the author saying to us? 	3
Jessica's Box	Carnavas, Peter	K-2nd	It is Jessica's first day of school, and she is nervous. Did you feel that way? Jessica brings a box to school. Watch closely as she reveals what is inside each day. Does the box help her make friends? Let's find out.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Why did Jessica bring a box to school each day? Did it help her make friends? 2. Jessica shared what happened at school each day, with her family. Who do you talk with when you have a problem and need some help with it? 3. How did her family help her? (They listened.) 4. What was in the box that made a classmate want to play with her? (Jessica- just being herself was enough) 	1
Just Kidding	Ludwig, Trudy	3rd-6th	A book about the emotional bullying of boys that shows the difference between just kidding around and actual bullying. It also offers different options for young people to use in order to enable a situation to be more positive.	Excellent discussion questions at the end of the book.	2

Little Dreamers, Visionary Women Around The World	Vashti Harrison	4th-6th	This book describes over 30 accomplished women from around the world, their challenges and their impacts on the world, and their breaking the rules sometimes, and their ways that have made our world a better place to live. Choose a woman that would be interesting to the age group being read to, read her bio, and then talk about it.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Can you say a couple facts about this woman's life? 2. What were some challenges in her life? 3. How did she overcome these challenges? 4. How did she make our world a better place to live? 	1
Mae's First Day of School	Kate Berube	PreK-1st	A wonderful story about Mae and Rosie and Ms. Pearl being ready to begin a new school year, this book shows how common many school fears are and a few ways we can all help each other deal with those emotions.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What are some fears that Mae had about going to school of the first day? 2. Did Rosie and Ms. Pearl have those same fears? 3. Why did Ms. Pearl think it might not be a good idea to live in a tree for a long time? 4. Have you ever felt these fears before starting anything new? 	1
Malala Yousafzai	Hansen, Grace	1st-4th	An informative and motivational timeline of the life and work of a young, present-day peace activist.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Name two or three causes that Malala believed in? 2. What were some of the hardships Malala faced? 3. How did she deal with these hardships? 4. What is global education? 5. On pages 22 and 23, there is a timeline of Malala's life and glossary that would add to the discussion. 	2
Martha Walks the Dog	Meddaugh, Susan	K-4th	Martha is a very intelligent and friendly dog. Bob, a new dog, is chained up. He is mean and angry and his master yells "Bad dog!" Martha, with the help of a parrot, shows Bob and his master that Bob can be and is a good, friendly dog.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Why do you think Bob was so mean? 2. Have you ever been treated meanly? 3. What is the difference between telling someone they are bad, or telling them what they are doing is bad? 4. Have you ever made friends with someone who is being mean to you? 	2

Martin's BIG Words The Life of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.	Doreen Rappaport	2nd-4th	This short biography of Martin Luther King is concise and written especially for young people, and is illustrated beautifully.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. When we say his name, Dr. Martin Luther King, what words come to your mind? 2. Can you describe one happening in his growing up time? 3. What happened to Rosa Parks? How did people support her? What changed as a result of this? 4. Reread a few of the MLK quotes on each page. Which one do you like? Why? 	1
Maya Lin Designer of the Vietnam Veterans Memorial	Jeanne Walker Harvey	2nd-4th	Maya Lin grew up with parents who encouraged her to be creative, think outside the box, and be true to her talents and the core of her being. In this realm, Maya is the artist and architect of the renowned Vietnam Veterans Memorial Wall that is displayed on the Mall in Washington, D.C.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What was Maya's youth like? 2. What was one of Maya's talents? What did she decide to become? 3. How did she come up with the idea that the wall would be very long and looks like someone but the earth open with a knife? 4. Why is Maya Lin thought of as inspiring? 	1
Me And My Fear	Francesca Sanna	2nd	This story is about a young girl who moves to a new country and goes to a new school. She is very fearful, and learns that we all have fears but by finding friends to share our fears with, our lives are much better.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. At the beginning of the book, what did Fear like to do? 2. After the girl met the boy, what happened to her Fear? 3. What do you think the author was trying to say in this book? 4. Have you ever experienced fear like the young girl? Were you able to get over your fear? How did you do that? 	1
Mean Soup	Everitt, Betsy	PreK-2nd	It's been a very bad day for Horace, and he comes home from school feeling mean. His mother suggests they make soup. While the soup is coming to a boil, they each take turns screaming into the pot and releasing their anger until they are able to smile again.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What makes you feel mean sometimes? 2. What do you think about screaming into a pot of soup? 3. What makes you feel better? 4. What kinds of "soups" could you make? 	1

Mia Mayhem Is A Superhero! Book 1	Kara West	2nd-4th	Mia Mayhem is just a regular eight-year-old girl who has a HUGE secret - she's a SuperHero-in-training as she goes on all sorts of adventures.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What news did Mia get? 2. Why did she think she would not be a good superhero? 3. What powers did Mia's mom and dad have? 	1
Mia Mayhem Learns To Fly Book 2	Kara West	2nd-4th	Another action-packed book describing the wild and funny adventures of a daring 8 year old girl who is secretly a superhero! Please start with Chapter 1 because it sets the tone of the whole book.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What is Mia's cat, Chaos, like? 2. What is the PITS activity that Mia goes to after school each day? 3. Describe what Mia and the other students were working on in Professor Wingum's class? 4. How did Mia save the day in the wind tunnel? 	1
Mixed A Colorful Story	Chung, Arree	PreK-3rd	A color-filled story about accepting all people, because we are so much better together! (This book is especially good for racial acceptance.)	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Describe the colors at the beginning of the story? 2. What happened to cause the colors to separate? 3. What was their life like at the end of the story? 3. What do you think the author was trying to say to us? 	1
Mommy, Mama, and Me	Newman, Leslea	PreK-2nd	A story about one type of family - a word that has many meanings and types of arrangements of people. This book shows how one type of family, one with to moms, loves and supports their child.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What does the child in this family call her two parents? 2. What type of things does Mama do for her child? 3. What type of things does Mommy do for her child? 4. What other kinds of families do you know about? 5. What is your family like? 	2

Morris Micklewhite and the Tangerine Dress	Christine Baldacchino and Isabelle Malenfant	All Grades	Morris, a creative, adventurous boy likes to wear a tangerine-colored dress. But the other students at school make fun of Morris because they think that boys don't wear dresses. In the end, Morris learns sometimes he must be strong and independent to be able to be himself and be accepted by others.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What was Morris like? 2. What was the problem in this book? 3. How did Morris handle this issue? 4. What could you do to help Morris if you were his friend? 	1
My Rotten Redheaded Older Brother	Polacco, Patricia	1st-4th	Tricia learns the importance of having a fun brother.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Why do you think it's important for the little girl to do something better than her brother? 2. How do you feel about her older brother? 3. How do you think the little girl felt when she could ride the merry-go-round longer than her brother? 4. How did the grandmother help both the little girl and the older brother in the book? 	1
Nasreen's Secret School	Winter, Jeanette	2nd-5th	Based on a true story in Afghanistan, this book depicts how powerful education and love can be in life-changing ways, even in the most dire situations.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What unfortunate event happened to Nasreen? 2. How did Nasreen handle these issues? 3. What did Nasreen's grandmother do for her? 4. What did Nasreen learn at her secret school? 5. Describe Nasreen at the beginning of this story. Describe Nasreen at the end of this story. 	1
Nerdy Birdy	Reynolds, Aaron	PreK-3rd	Nerdy Birdy likes reading, video games, and reading about video games, which the Cool Birdies don't think is cool. Being a nerdy birdy is a lonely lifestyle until he meets a nerdy flock just like him.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Why does Nerdy Birdy feel left out? 2. How does he find comfort in other birds like him? 3. What does this teach Nerdy Birdy about friendship and groups and appearances? 	1

Nerdy Birdy Tweets	Reynolds, Aaron	K-2nd	Nerdy Birdy and Vulture are best friends. When Nerdy Birdy finds the word of Tweetser, he jeopardizes his friendship when he tweets an embarrassing photo of Vulture. In the end, Nerdy Birdy learns that friendship is much more important than tweeting.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Describe Nerdy Birdy and Vulture's friendship. 2. What happened after Nerdy Birdy discovered Tweetser. 3. What did both Nerdy Birdy and Vulture do to restore their relationship? 	1
No Water No Bread	Amavisca, Luis	PreK-3rd	Two groups of people live separated by a barbed wire fence. One group has plenty of water and the other group has plenty of bread, but they have difficulty sharing their resources with each other. When a third group appears without bread or water, an unlikely group comes up with an answer.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What was life like when the groups didn't share? 2. What was life like when the groups shared? 3. Who helped solve the problem? 	1
Nobiah's Well	Guthrie, Donna	3rd-4th	Nobiah has a "deep heart" as he gives precious water meant for his family and crops to the thirsty animals he meets on his way home from the well. When Nobiah's thirst became "wide," his animal friends helped dig a well for him.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What do you think it means to have a "deep heart" or a "wide thirst?" 2. Have you ever been as thirsty as Nobiah? What were the circumstances and how did you quench your thirst? 3. How far did you ever have to go for water? Miles and miles? 	2
Noodlephant	Jacob Kramer	1st-3rd	Noodlephant loves to cook and eat noodles of all kinds, but the kangaroos, who are the lawmakers of their town, uphold the law that says that only kangaroos can eat noodles. With the help of her friends, noodlephant stands up for all members of their town and, in doing so, shows the kangaroos that their lives can be so much more meaningful when everyone has the same rights and all members can contribute something to their community.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What was the problem in this story, as the kangaroos saw it? 2. What was the problem in this story, as Noodlephant saw it? 3. Why was Noodlephant in the zoo? 4. How did Noodlephant and her friends convince the kangaroos to let everyone eat noodles? 	1

Oliver Button is a Sissy	DePaola, Tomie	2nd-3rd	Oliver is made fun of because he likes to dance. In a talent show his friends discover that he is a star.	1. How could Oliver be so brave to enter the talent show? 2. What do you suppose Oliver was thinking when they teased him?	2
One	Otoshi, Kathryn	K-5th	Blue is a quiet color. Red is a hot head. Red likes to pick on Blue. The other colors don't like what they see, but what can they do? When no one takes a stand, things get out of hand. Until One comes along and shows all the colors how to stand up and count!	1. Why do you think Red was always picking on Blue? 2. What might be some reasons why the other colors don't stand up to Red? 3. Who changed the story and how? 4. Have you seen stories like this happen in real life before? How did it make you feel to see it?	2
Only One You	Kranz, Linda	K-5th	Adri the fish learns some of the valuable and wise lessons his parents have learned to guide him along in the world.	1. At the end of each page, take a few moments to talk about what each saying means. 2. What do you think wisdom is? 3. Have you ever heard anyone say things like this? 4. What are some good things you have learned? What's the best advice you can give someone?	1
Peace, Baby	Ashman, Linda	PreK-2nd	We all can have frustrating days when we feel overwhelmed and are tempted to do some "just to get even" things - but just stop, take a break, and say "Peace, Baby"!	1. Have you ever felt like any of the characters in this story? How did you handle your situation? 2. What situation in your life might you be able to stop, take a break, and say "Peace, Baby"?	1
Peace Tales	McDonald, Margaret Read	6th-Adult	This book includes three dozen folktales and proverbs that show how little things might lead to peace or war.		1
Peace, see Shalom, Salaam, Peace	Bogot, Howard	K-5th	Read this book back to front, as Hebrew and Arabic texts are read. The author draws from Judaism, Christianity, and Islam to bring the ideal of peace into a concrete reality.	1. Why do you think I read this book from back to front? (Different doesn't necessarily mean "wrong") 2. What does peace mean or look like to you? 3. When have you ever felt without peace? 4. What are some things you can do to create peace?	1

A Picture Book of Rosa Parks	Adler, David A.	4th-8th	The factual retelling of Rosa Parks, who in 1955 was arrested for not giving up her bus seat to a white person.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Why do you think African American people were treated this way? 2. What does oppression mean? 3. Who in the world today is oppressed? 4. What does it take to begin a movement that works toward freedom? 	1
Quick as a Cricket	Wood, Audrey	PreK-1st	" A joyful celebration of self-awareness" as you follow a young child giving similies for his moods.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What mood are you in right now? 2. Do you always feel the same way? Why or why not? 3. What are some other words we use when we talk about our moods or how we are feeling? 4. What mood would you like to be in? 	10
Quiet Please, Owen McPhee	Ludwig, Trudy	K-5th	Owen McPhee loves to talk, he loves it so much he spends all day talking! When he wakes up one day with a bad case of laryngitis, he learns the importance of listening to what others have to say.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Have you ever been asked to stop talking? 2. How did that make you feel? 3. What do you do when you listen to someone? 4. Why is it so important to hear what other people have to say? 	1
Reach For the Sky	Stoutland, Allison	2nd-3rd	One person can make a difference, and everyone should try. Each page spread leads to what "something" taught me.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. On each page spread you can ask: How do they teach you that? 2. What does it mean to cooperate? 3. When have you cooperated to get the job done? What were you doing? 4. Lying in a sunny spot is a wonderful feeling for a cat. What makes you feel wonderful? 	2
Red	Michael Hall	All Grades	This is a story about a crayon that had a red label but he was really blue. He tried his hardest to be red and to be the color that the other colors thought he should be. But in the end, with the help of a friend, he realized that he could be who he is, a blue crayon in a red label.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. How did red try to be red? Was he successful? 2. What do you think is the message that the author is trying to convey? 	1

Rosie's Story	Gogoll, Martina	1st-3rd	Everyone who has ever been teased will like this story.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. How did Rosie feel when she was being teased? 2. What did Rosie's dad suggest that she do about being teased? 3. What did Rosie and her mom decide was going to be the topic of her story? 4. How did Rosie's class react when she read her story to them? 	1
Sally Sore Loser A Story About Winning and Losing	Frank J. Sileo	K-2nd	Sally just has to be first at everything - the first out the door at recess, first, first, first! And because she always liked to win every game she played at recess, she would yell at other kids and make them feel badly about not playing up to her standards. So Sally became Sally Sore Loser. But with the help of her mom and her teacher, Sally learned how to become a better teammate by being positive and uplifting with her friends.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What was Sally like at the beginning of the book? 2. How did Sally change? 3. Can you name a few tips about Being a Good Sport?
Separate Is Never Equal	Tonatiuh, Duncan	4th-6th	This book takes from 11 to 15 minutes to read. Pre-reading vocabulary: segregate, integrate, separate but equal (Definitions found in back of book.) A powerful, true story, set in 1948 in California, about Sylvia Mendez' struggle for her and her family to attend white public schools.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. what happened to Sylvia and her two brothers at the beginning of the story? 2. Whenever the question of why couldn't students from Mexico go to their neighborhood schools, what was the answer? 3. what are some hardships that Sylvia and her family experienced? 4. In the end, what happened as a result of the law suit? 	1
Shalom, Salaam, Peace	Bogot, Howard	K-5th	Read this book back to front, as Hebrew and Arabic texts are read. The author draws from Judaism, Christianity, and Islam to bring the ideal of peace into a concrete reality.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Why do you think I read this book from back to front? (Different doesn't necessarily mean "wrong") 2. What does peace mean or look like to you? 3. When have you ever felt without peace? 4. What are some things you can do to create peace? 	1

Shapesville	Mills, Andy	PreK-3rd	An uplifting story that shows students that healthy bodies come in all shapes and sizes and that we all should celebrate everyone's unique differences.	Discussion questions are at the end of the book.	1
Share and Take Turns	Meiners, Cheri J.	PreK-1st	Presents different ways we share with others. Gives permission for one not to share sometimes. Delightful pictures illustrate the joy of sharing. Questions to ask on back pages.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Do you find it fun to play with others? 2. What do you share with others? 3. Are there times when you don't want to share? 4. How can we have our own things and yet share with others? 	1
She Persisted 13 American women Who Changed the World	Clinton, Chelsea	All Grades	This book is for everyone, boys and girls and men and women, for all of us who have every been told to be quiet, sit down, or your thoughts don't matter. "Persistence is power." Choose one or two short biographies, read the selection, and talk about their obstacles and how each person dealt with them.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What did you learn about this person? 2. What does persist mean? (to continue to exist, be prolonged, endure) How did this person persist in their life? 3. How do you persist in your life? What are some examples? 	1
Showdown and Pangaea Creek	Evans, Michael	5th-8th	Two outlaws bring all their weapons to town and vow to be the one to survive their duel. When they see the fear in the eyes of all the townsfolk, they find the courage to say no to the violence and no one is hurt.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. How do you think the outlaws felt at the beginning? 2. How did the townsfolk feel? 3. Why did they decide to put their weapons down? 4. Do you think it's hard to walk away from a bad situation? Have you ever had to do it? Was it better to walk away or to just let it happen? 	1
Skin Again	hooks, bell [sic]	PreK-2nd	Our skin only tells a small part of our story, knowing others deeply is so much more fun.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What do you think the author is saying to us. 2. What are some ways we can get to know people? 3. What does your skin tell about you? 4. Name two words that describe you? 	1

Smoky Night	Bunting, Eve	6th-8th	When the Los Angeles riots break out in the streets of their neighborhood, a young boy and his mother learn the value of getting along with others no matter what their background or nationality.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Have you ever seen a riot on TV? What started it? 2. What are some better ways of expressing yourself under those circumstances? 3. Why did they boy not like Mrs. Kim? 4. What could you do to get to know someone better? 	1
Snowflake in My Pocket	Bright, Rachel	K-3rd	Inside an old, twisted oak tree, lives a very wise bear, and a very small squirrel. Can a bear and a squirrel be friends? Find out what happens when the season starts to change into winter.... Have you ever tried to put a snowflake in YOUR pocket?.....	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. How can you tell Bear and Squirrel are friends? 2. Bear is older than Squirrel. Do you have older friends? What is that like? 3. Do you have younger friends? What do you like to do together? 4. What makes a strong friendship? 	1
Socrates	Bogaerts, Rascal & Gert	2nd-4th	An orphaned dog finds a pair of glasses and thereby a friend and a home.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What do you suppose it felt like to be an orphan? 2. What have you done whenever you have been lonely? 	2
Someone New	O'Brien, Sibley	K-3rd	Three elementary students who aren't new, begin to understand and embrace three new immigrant students.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What does being an immigrant mean? 2. How are Maria, Jin, and Fatimah different from their classmates? How are they the same? 3. How do you make someone new feel welcome? 	1
Somewhere Today A Book of Peace	Thomas, Shelley Moore	PreK-3rd	Amost poem-like, the author displays photos of simple ways that anyone, at any age, can make our world a better place - planting trees, teaching someone something new, or giving something away.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Did you do anything to help someone out this week? Describe what you did. 2. Describe how that made you feel after you have done something for another person. 3. How do you think the person you helped feels? 	1

Spaghetti in a Hot Dog Bun	Dismondy, Maria	K-3rd	We are all different people and come from different background and cultures. This story involves Lucy and her grandpa, and it shows the reader how Lucy became proud of herself, even when other kids were mean to her because they did not under her background.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Describe Lucy - What was she like? 2. What was Ralph like? 3. What happened between Ralph and Lucy? 4. How did grandpa help Lucy? And, Did her grandpa's questions help her? 	1
Stand in My Shoes	Sornson, Bob	2nd-5th	Empathy is understanding how another person is feeling. Showing empathy helps to develop strong, positive social relationships. This story is about Emily, and how she goes about her day, interacting with people, now that she knows what empathy means.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. How did different characters react to Emily's empathy towards them? Her sister Alicia? Her dad? Rosie? Mrs. Fitch? 2. Think about someone in your life. Have you shown empathy towards them? 3. Has someone been empathetic toward you? How? 	1
Stand Tall, Molly Lou Melon	Lovell, Patty	K-2nd	Molly Lou Melon, like all of us, is less than perfect. When Molly Lou moves to a new town and meets a bully at her school, she remembers what her grandma taught her - be strong in the person you are.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What happened when Molly Lou went to her new school? 2. How did Molly Lou react to Ronald Durkin? 3. What is the author trying to tell us? 	1
Super Manny Stands Up!	Dipucchio, Kelly	PreK-2nd	After school every day, Manny puts on his cape, becomes a superhero and saves the world from imaginary robots and monsters. Until one day at school, Manny, with the help of his invisible cape, stood up to a bully, and, in doing so, taught the other kids to be brave and stand up for themselves.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. How did Manny feel when he put on his superhero cape? 2. What kind of cape did Manny wear to school? Why? 3. What was Manny brave enough to do when another student was being mean to his friend? 4. Have you ever been in a situation like Manny's? Describe what happened. 	1
Swimmy	Lionni, Leo	PreK-2nd	A 1964 Caldecott Winner, this is a wonderful tale of one brave fish who teaches his friends how, together with good ideas, they can deal with danger in a different way.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Describe Swimmy: E106 What does he look like? What does he like? 2. What happened to his friend? 3. How did Swimmy deal with it? 4. What was his idea? 	1

Take the Time Mindfulness for Kids	Maud Roegiers	K-3rd	A book of wonderful ways for people of all ages, especially kids, to become more self-aware, to calm down, and in the end to feel better.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Have you ever had days that felt "topsy-turvy" to you? If so, what did you do to start to feel better? 2. "To listen to silence," what do you think that means? 3. One of the author's suggestions was "To heal my hurt feelings." What do you think she means by that? 4. When you are mindful to someone, what does that look like? 	1
A Tale of Two Beasts	Roberton, Fiona	2nd-5th	This is a story about a little girl that "rescues" a strange beast from the woods...or is it? Hear the little girl's side of the story, and then the wild beast's side of the story. See what happens in the end!	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What was the problem? (Each character has their own point of view- what does that mean?) 2. Has this ever happened to you? You and another person have an opinion/point of view that is different? How do you handle that? Does it become a problem? 3. Why did the beast come back? Was it really for the hat...or the friendship? 4. What did the girl learn? 	1
Teammates	Golenbock, Peter	3rd-6th	True story of Jackie Robinson's first weeks as a Brooklyn Dodger, discrimination in the 1940s, and Pee Wee Reese's statement to the whole world that "this man is my teammate."	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What do you think segregation means? 2. Why do you think there are laws against it today? 3. How do you think Jackie Robinson felt when his own fans would scream insults at him because he was black? 4. Pee Wee Reese took a brave stand. How can you help support a person being unfairly treated or discriminated against? 	1

Terrible Things	Bunting, Eve	3rd-4th	An allegory of the Holocaust. Little Rabbit experiences apathy as each type of creature gets "taken away" by the "Terrible Things."	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What are some of the words that describe how the animals felt when the other animals were being taken away? 2. Why didn't the creatures stand up for one another? 3. Have you ever stood up for what you thought was right? What happened? 4. Is it easier to stand up for something alone or with others? Why? 	1
The 8 Keys To End Bullying Activity Book For Kids and Tweens	Signe Whitson	4th-6th	For Volunteers: This book is a good resource for 4th grade and above that has over 40 activities that help 4th, 5th, and 6th graders deal with conflict and bullying behaviors. Because it is a workbook, you might want to choose an activity before the reading day and run off copies of the activity and the accompanying worksheet.		1
The Blind Man and the Hunter	A West African Tale	5th-8th	A blind man wants to go out into the woods with a hunter, but the hunter keeps saying no. After he finally says yes, the blind man helps him learn a lesson or two about tolerance and acceptance of those around us.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What does the blind man mean when he says, "I see with my ears"? 2. How do you think the blind man felt when the hunter said he was no use? 3. What does it mean that the blind man "hears with his heart"? 4. Tolerance means accepting someone who is different. What are some ways to show people we accept them? 	1
The Boy and the Bindi	Shraya, Vivek	K-2nd	When a young Indian boy is fascinated by his mother's bindi, the red dot often worn by women, his mother teaches him about its meaning and significance.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. How did the Indian boy's mother respond when he asked her about her bindi? 2. What do you think is the meaning of a bindi? 	1

The Bully Blocker's Club	Bateman, Teresa	2nd-5th	A story about possible strategies to help deal with a bully, and, in the end, the idea that getting together with others to face the bully can be effective too.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What were some ideas that Lotty tried when she was being bullied? 2. What is a bully? In other words, what was Grant like? 3. What strategy works best at the end of the story? 4. At the end of the book, there is an excellent informative section about bullying behaviors. 	1
The Colors of Us	Katz, Karen	PreK-1st	Lena, with the help of her mother who is an artist, learns that there are endless shades of skin color, as she observes members of her neighborhood. And, most importantly, all of the shades are beautiful.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. How many shades of brown does this book describe? 2. Which character in the story has skin color close to the color of yours? 3. How many shades of skin do you see in our reading group? 	1
The Day The Crayons Quit	Daywalt, Drew	2nd-4th	Poor Duncan just wants to color. But when he opens his box of crayons, he finds letters, all saying that his crayons want to quit! Read on to find out why, and think about what Duncan can do to solve this problem.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What were the crayons unhappy about? 2. Which crayon colors do you use a lot? 3. Would you try to solve the problem like Duncan did? What could you do? 4. What if... crayons were people. Would you play with the same people all of the time, the same way? How would it feel to play with new people, and do different activities? Have you? Tell us about it. 	1
The Family Book	Parr, Todd	PreK-1st	Represents a variety of families, some big, some small, some with one parent, some with two moms or dads...but all alike in some ways and special no matter what	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Do any of you have family far away? Where? 2. How do you keep in touch with family far away? 3. What makes your family special? 4. What are some things that families do together? 	1

The Invisible Boy	Trudy Ludwig	3rd	Brian, a quiet little boy, is not usually noticed by other people or included in their groups. But when a new boy, Justin, arrives in Brian's class, Brian went out of his way to welcome Justin. Little did Brian know, this was the beginning of a new friendship.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What are some ways Brian felt invisible? 2. Did Madison and her friends try to hurt Brian? What might they have done differently? 3. How did Brian welcome Justin? 4. How did Justin help Brian become visible? 5. Have you ever felt invisible? What might have helped you feel more at ease? 	1
The Juice Box Bully	Sorenson, Bob and Dismody, Maria	1st-4th	Pete is the new kid at school, and, as the story unfolds, he is also acting like a bully. But the other students react to Pete much differently than expected. They are kind and accepting and want Pete to join them.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. On the first page after the end of the story, you might read the paragraphs at the top of the page and then The Promise. Ask the students what they think about this? 2. What is the difference between a bystander and a person who stands up in a bullying situation? 	1
The Knight and the Dragon	DePaola, Tomie	K-5th	A knight and a dragon have never fought before. They each practice and prepare for the fight. Wonderful illustrations of the ridiculousness of the fight.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What was the reason for the fight? 2. I wonder what each was thinking about the other during their practice. 3. Do you think it was easy to give up the fight? 4. What are some other things you can do instead of fighting? 	4
The Librarian of Basra	Winter, Jeanette	1st-5th	A true story. Alia is the librarian in Basra, Iraq. Her library is a wonderful place where her community can read, at least until the war came. Because Alia thought the library might be destroyed, she took the responsibility of taking all 30,000 books to her home and other people's homes.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What was the war like in Basra and how did it affect their community? 2. Why was Alia worried about her books? 3. Predict what you think happened after the end of this story. It may help to reread the last page again. 	1

The Name Jar	Choi, Yangsook	1st-6th	Unhei, a young girl who just moved with her family from Korea to America, is worried about the students at her new school being able to pronounce her name. This actually happens, so read on to learn about how Unhei and her new friends creatively solve this situation and, at the same time, learn how to accept each other's differences as well.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What are some things Unhei is nervous about at her new school? 2. Explain the title of the book, The Name Jar. 3. When you see someone new in your school or neighborhood, what can you do to help them feel more accepted? 	1
The Peace Book	Parr, Todd	PreK-1st	There are lots of different kinds of peace. Open this book and see. Brightly illustrated.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Did you ever think peace could mean so many different things? 2. Can you add other ideas of peace? 	2
The Promise	Davies, Nicola	3rd plus	A heartwarming story about the love of nature and the people who decide to change their lives because of it.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Can you tell the story in your own words? 2. What do you think the message of this story is? 3. Have you ever seen people planting in your community? If so, how does this make you feel? 	2
The Recess Queen	O'Neill, Alexis	K-3rd	Mean Jean was queen of recess and no one dared to do anything before she did it first until one day, there was a new kid in town, Katie Sue, who didn't know the rules. Katie Sue did what she wanted, when she wanted during recess. Mean Jean didn't like this at first, until Katie Sue asked Mean Jean to play with her, and that eventually changed Mean Jean to just Jean.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What was Mean Jean like? 2. What was Katie Sue like? 3. What made Mean Jean change her ways during recess? 4. Why do you think Mean Jean started to be nice to the other kids? 	1
The Secret of the Peaceful Warrior	Millman, Dan	5th-8th	Danny Morgan meets a boy who uses bullying to frighten him on his first day of school. An old man named Socrates helps Danny deal with his fear and teaches him courage, love, and the path of the peaceful warrior.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Share a personal story about bullying. 2. How does Joy's friendship help? 3. When has fear prevented you from doing something you wanted to do? 4. What is empathy and how is it expressed in this story? 	1

The Skin You Live In	Tyler, Michael	PreK-3rd	In poetry format, this book explains how skin color is just one part of who we are.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. On the inside cover of this book, there are many different colored circles. What do you think they mean? 2. How would you describe your skin color? 3. What do you think the author is trying to tell us through his book? 	2
The Sneetches	Dr. Seuss	K-5th	The Starbellies and those without stars on their bellies have a big contest to see who is the best.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Why didn't they want to be like the others? 2. How do we tell people apart? 3. What makes people different? 4. When are differences sometimes helpful? 	5
The Story of Ferdinand	Leaf, Munro	2nd-3rd	Ferdinand is not like all the other bulls in Spain, but a quirk accident sends him to the bullring. And being the peaceful bull he is, Ferdinand won't fight.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Is it hard or easy to be different from everyone else? 2. What makes it difficult to be different from everyone else? 3. What made the men think Ferdinand would be a good fighting bull? 4. What do you think Ferdinand was thinking or feeling when he was taken to the bullring? 	2
The Story of Ruby Bridges	Coles, Robert	4th-5th	True story of Ruby who helped bring about racial integration in the South.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What made Ruby so brave? 	1
The Three Questions	Muth, Jon J.	2nd-5th	Profound yet simple book about compassion and living in the moment. Young Nicoli seeks counsel from Leo the turtle and wants him to answer three questions: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) When is the best time to do things? 2) Who is the most important one? 3) What is the right thing do? Based on a story by Leo Tolstoy.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What is the most important time? 2. Who is the most important one? 3. What is the most important thing to do? 4. Do you believe grandparents have lots of wisdom? Why or why not? 	2

The Wall In The Middle Of The Book	Jon Agee	PreK-2nd	The wall in the middle of the book is meant to protect the good side from the bad side of the wall. But, in the end, the boy learns that there is good and bad on both sides of the wall.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What does the boy think the purpose of the wall is? 2. At the end of the story, what happened to the boy's side of the wall? 3. What was the ogre's side of the wall like? 4. What do you think the author was trying to tell us? 	1
Those Shoes	Maribeth Boelts	2nd	Jeremy really wants a pair of high-tops that everyone at his school seems to want too. But his grandmother said that he really needs new snowboots, and that she doesn't have money for both. As the story unfolds, Jeremy learns that more important than wearing new shoes that everyone else has is not as important as a good home, with a loving grandmother, and having a good friend.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What happened after Mr. Alfry gave Jeremy the pair of shoes from school? How do you think that made Jeremy feel? 2. Did Jeremy end up getting a pair of black high-tops? What was wrong with them? 3. How do you think Jeremy had the idea to give the high-tops to Antonio? How did that make Antonio feel? How did giving his shoes away make Jeremy feel? 4. Have you ever been in a similar situation? How did your situation end up? How did it make you feel? 	2
Two Mrs. Gibsons	Igus, Toyomi	K-5th	A young girl has two strong women in her life - her mother and grandmother. They are different from one another but each affects and enriches her life.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What differences do you see in these two women? 2. How are people different in your family? 3. What do people in your family have in common? 4. How can differences bring joy and happiness? 	2
Walter Was Worried	Seeger, Laura Vaccaro	PreK-1st	Children's faces, depicted with letters of the alphabet, react to the onset of a storm and its aftermath in this picture book.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What letter of the alphabet does your name start with? 2. Can you think of a feeling that starts with the same sound? 3. Help me find all the letters on the faces that spell out these feelings. 	4

Wanda's Roses	Brisson, Pat	2nd-4th	A little girl, a vacant lot, a "rose" bush, what can happen when a caring community comes together?	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Describe what Wanda found in the vacant lot? 2. What did she think it was? What did the other adults in her community think it was? 3. What happened when Wanda invited her friends to the vacant lot for tea? 4. What do you think the message of this story is? 	1
Wangari's Trees of Peace	Winter, Jeanette	5th-8th	Wangari lives in the forest of Kenya and learns of the richness this environment provides. After receiving her education in the USA, she returns to find a depleted land. She starts a movement to reforest Africa, overcome government opposition, and wins the Nobel Peace Prize.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Has Wangari helped to make her world a better place? 2. How did Wangari fight for what she believed in? 3. Are there people in your school who act as peacemakers? How do they do this? Why do you think it was important for Wangari to protect the forest? 	2
The Way I Feel	Cain, Janan	K-5th	This is a rhyming book on feelings. Each page deals with different feelings with great artwork. Helps children give language to their emotions.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What circumstances make you feel happy, sad, and so on? 2. How can you ask for help with your feelings? 3. How can you change your feelings? 	2
We Are Best Friends	Aliki	1st-3rd	Two boys, best friends, one moves, but both boys are lonely, each boy learns that sometimes reaching out to others is a good way to get through change and being apart.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. How did Robert feel after Peter moved away? How did Peter feel? 2. What did Peter's letter say? How did that make Robert feel? 3. What did both boys do that helped them be happier without being close to each other? 4. Were Robert and Peter still best friends? 5. Has something like this ever happened to you? Describe your situation. 	1

We Can Work It Out	Polland, Barbara K.	K-5th	Explores conflict resolution for children. It presents different behaviors that occur during conflict and options for dealing with them.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What does conflict mean to you? 2. Do you ever have conflicts with other people? How so? 3. Has anyone ever been upset with you? 4. How did it make you feel? 	2
We Rise, We Resist, We Raise Our Voices	Edited by Wade Hudson and Cheryl Willis Hudson	3rd plus	A wonderful and uplifting compilation of creative essays and letters and poems written for the purpose of teaching all of us how to cope with bullying behaviors, how to face internal uncertainty, and how we can use kindness and love to unite us and initiate change in our world.	You can choose one or several entries to read outloud and ask students what their thoughts are concerning the passage.	2
Weird	Frankel, Erin	1st-3rd	Luisa loves to laugh with her friends, answer questions in class, and wear clothes that she likes to wear. But, Sam, another girl at her school, teases Luisa about everything. But, with the help of people in her life, Luisa learned how to deal with put-downs and be proud of who she is.	Starting on Page 39, there are several good discussion questions.	1
What Do You Do With A Problem?	Yamada, Kobi	All Grades	A story good for all ages to hear - what to do when a problem arises? Ignore it, run away from it, hide from it, worry about it, or face the problem and possibly learn and grow from it?	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. How did the main character handle the problem at first? 2. Can you think of a time when you had a problem? How did you deal with it? 3. Did you learn something from dealing with your problem? Did you discover anything about yourself? 	1
What Does It Mean To Be Global	DiOrio, Rana	PreK-4th	This introduces students to the meaning of Global, learning more about being a citizen of the world, starting to explore other cultures, and encouraging all of us to use compassion and understanding to become members of a global community.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What does global mean to you? 2. Diversity in people - What do you think this means? 3. Go to the page that defines these words: community, culture, etc. Read the definitions and discuss what this means to the students? 	1

What was the Underground Railroad?	McDonough, Yona Zeldis	3rd-6th	This is a series of ten informative chapters about the Underground Railroad. You might ask the student what they know about the Underground Railroad and then choose one of two chapters according to their knowledge.	After reading each chapter, you can ask questions to see if they comprehended the information.	1
When Emily Woke Up Angry	Duncan, Riana	K-5th	Emily encounters many animals who suggest how to get rid of her anger. It finally works.	1. How many ideas can you remember that Emily tried? 2. What have you tried when you were angry? 3. Did it work?	2
When I Feel Good about Myself	Spellman, Cornelia	PreK	In simple language, the author shows children how to identify and handle emotions, along with teaching them to accept themselves as they are.	1. When do you feel good about yourself? 2. Turn to any page, read and show any picture, and ask students what is happening in the picture. Have you ever done anything like this?	1
When I'm Feeling Angry	Trace Moroney	PreK-1st	Anger is a natural feeling, and we all feel this way sometimes. This book enables the reader to realize that feeling anger is more common than we think, and discusses several ways to cope with this feeling.	On the next to last page of the book are examples of discussion questions.	1
When I'm Feeling Lonely	Trace Moroney	PreK-1st	When children understand their feeling of loneliness, they can learn how to handle it themselves or talk about it with someone they trust. And then they are able to better enjoy their world and be happy.	On the next to last page of the book are examples of discussion questions.	1
When Sophie Gets Angry - Really, Really Angry	Bang, Molly	PreK-1st	Sophie is a little girl who really explodes when she gets angry. She yells, shouts, and then she runs away as fast as she can. After she has run a while, she slows down and cools off in nature before returning home.	1. What made Sophie so angry? 2. What makes you angry and how do you show it? 3. How can you cool down when you do get angry? 4. What do you do when you see someone get really angry?	1

When Sophie's Feelings are Really, Really Hurt	Bang, Molly	K-3rd	Sophia painted a picture of a beautiful tree, but the other kids made fun of it, which made Sophie feel sad and embarrassed. This story shows kids how to respect their differences in a kind, thoughtful way.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What colors did Sophie use in her painting of her tree? Why did she choose those colors? 2. Describe her friends' feelings about Sophie's painting. 3. What did Ms. Mulry say about all the paintings? 	1
Where Oliver Fits	Cale Atkinson	PreK-2nd	Oliver is a puzzle piece and is searching for the place where he might fit. After looking high and low from a beautiful sunset to the mane of a unicorn, he learns that sometimes it just takes patience and time to find that place of belonging.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Can you name a few places that Oliver tried to fit in? 2. What did Oliver do to himself to try to fit in? 3. Did this strategy work for him? Why not? 4. Were there other puzzle pieces trying to fit in? 5. What did Oliver learn about fitting in?
Who Is Sonia Sotomayor?	Megan Stine	3rd-6th	This book contains descriptions of her growing up in the Bronx in New York City, the challenges she faced because of being a Puerto Rican female, her many accomplishments, and her present day position of Supreme Court Justice. You might start with reading the first section entitled Who Is Sonia Sotomayor, and then read any other chapter that might interest the group of students you have.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What were some challenges that Sonia had in her life? 2. How did she deal with these challenges? 3. Can you name any of her accomplishments? What did she do to achieve this? 4. If Sonia Sotomayor was sitting in our group today, what might be a question you could ask her?
Why Frog and Snake Never Play Together	African Folktale	5th-8th	Frog-child and Snake-child befriend one another and have a fun time playing together. When their parents say they can't play together anymore, they feel sad and miss their friendship.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Why do you think their parents didn't want them playing together? 2. How did they feel when they couldn't be friends anymore? 3. What can they do about missing their friendship? What can they do if they want to be friends again? 	1

Willow Finds a Way	Lana Button	PreK-2nd	As Willow, even though she is shy and quiet, goes through her school day, she learns several ways to stand up for herself to Kristabelle, the class boss. who wants to MAKE everyone go to her birthday party. In doing this, Willow becomes a role modle for other students and becomes a better friend to everyone.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What is Willow like? 2. What is Kristabelle like? How does she treat her classmates? 3. who was the first person to sted up to Kristabelle? 3. After Kristabelle realized that no one was coming to her party, what did she do? 4. After Kristabelle apologized to the class, how did Willow treat Kristabelle? 5. Have you ever felt like Willow? Have you ever felt like Kristabelle? What happened?
Willow Whispers	Button, Lana	PreK-3rd	Willow's voice is very soft. She wishes her words would come out strong and loud so that everyone would notice her. When Willow's magic microphon doesn't work, she finds a way to make herself heard.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What does it mean to be shy? 2. Does Willow really need her magic microphone to be heard by her friends and teachers? 3. What happens after her microphone breaks? 	2
Wilma Jean the Worry Machine	Julia Cook	2nd-5th	Anxiety - We can all identify with fear, worry, and being apprehensive now and then. Wilma Jean takes us through a few of her worries, and then discovers she is not alone and can enlist adults in her life to help her address these issues in fun and creative ways.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What are a few of Wilma Jean's worries? 2. How were these worries affecting Wilma Jean? How did she feel when she woke up? 3. Who helped Wilma Jean worry less? How did these people help her worry less? 4. What are some worries you have? What are some ideas that might help you worry less? 	1
Women of Hope	Hansen, Joyce	4th-Adult	This is a series of 12 biographies of powerful women of color who have accomplished so much, even with the challenges of racial and gender discrimination. They are short, one-page biographies that deal with their upbringing, their challenges and their amazing contributions to our world.		1

Zero	Otoshi, Kathryn	PreK+	Zero doesn't feel like she has anything to offer other people, she thinks of herself as big round and empty. She envies the other numbers because they all seem to have a purpose, value and substance. With the help of her friends, Zero learned to look at herself in a different way and realized that she was valuable too.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. At the beginning of the story, how did Zero see herself? 2. What did she try to do to become valuable? 3. What did Zero learn in this book about herself? 4. How does this story related to your life? 	1
ZOOM	Banyai, Istvan	4th & up	With no words, just pictures, this book is a series of pictures within a picture, from a farm to a bus to a plane to the planet earth!	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What is this book about? 2. What do you think the author is trying to tell us in his book? 3. If you were to draw one more page at the end of ZOOM, what do you think it would be? Why? 	2
SPANISH LANGUAGE BOOKS
Alexander y el Dia Terrible, Horrible, Espantoso, Horroroso	Viorst, Judith	K-4th	Un día cuando todo esta mal para el, Alexander realice que otra gente tiene días malas también.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. A veces pasan cosas que no nos gusta. Cuando estas cosas paso a Alexander, ¿cuáles sentimientos tenia? 2. Cuando ves que alguien esta enojado o triste, ¿crees que podría estar teniendo un día mal? ¿Cómo pueden ayudarles? 3. ¿Qué debe hacer a Alexander la próxima día para tener un día mejor? 	2
El Arbol Generoso	Silverstein, Shel	PreK-3rd	Un árbol y un niño desarrollan una amistad. El árbol le encanta dar al niño hasta que parece no tiene nada mas para dar.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. ¿Por qué estaban el árbol y el niño tan felices juntos? ¿Qué te hace feliz? 2. ¿Cómo cambiaron los sentimientos del árbol cuando creció el niño y se convirtió en hombre? 3. ¿Qué es una sorpresa en esta historia? ¿Cómo creías que iba a terminar? 	1

La Luna Se Fue De Fiesta	Gollub, Matthew	2nd-4th	La luna esta celosa del sol y decide crear su propia fiesta. Se celebra un poco demasiado.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. ¿Qué quiere la luna? ¿Crees que es un problema? 2. ¿Cuáles son unas maneras que la luna puede crear soluciones? 3. ¿Cómo trabaja la luna como parte de grupo? ¿Le pide ayuda suficiente? 	1
La Mariquita Malhumorada	Carle, Eric	K-2nd	Dos mariquita que tienen hambre encuentran una hoja llena de áfidos para comer. Una sugiere compartir y la otra es tan enojado para hacerlo. Él prefiere pelear. No está seguro, y se va para buscar alguien con quien puede pelear. Regresa a la hoja muy cansado y encuentra que algunos áfidos y la otra mariquita siguen ahí.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. ¿Qué es la idea de la mariquita amistoso? ¿Por qué no se queda la mariquita malhumorada? 2. Si la mariquita malhumorada no quería pelear, ¿podía tener mas amigos aunque estaban mas grande que ella? 3. La mariquita malhumorada tenia mucha suerte al final de la historia. ¿Por qué? ¿Quién dio las gracias al final? 	1
La Mariquita Perezosa	Finn, Isolbel	PreK-1st	La mariquita perezosa no ha aprendido a volar porque prefiere dormir. No puede encontrar un lugar para dormir hasta que vuela.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. ¿Vuelen las mariquitas? ¿Por qué no vuela esta mariquita? 2. ¿Qué le gusta hacer a mariquita? ¿Por qué queda despierta por tanto tiempo? 3. ¿Creen que es buena cosa que estornudo el elefante? 4. ¿Qué piensan que hice mariquita después de todo eso? 	1
Modales	Aliki	PreK-2nd	Historias de uno o dos paginas que enfoque en un sentimiento en particular.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. ¿Qué son unos modales que usan ustedes? 2. ¿Ustedes se dieron cuenta de que paso cuando alguien no uso los modales? ¿Cómo sintieron los otros? 3. ¿Quién nos ayuda a aprender los modales? 	1
La Senorita Nelso Ha Desaparecido!	Allard, Harry	1st-3rd	Algunos estudiantes descubren una sorpresa cuando desaparece su maestra. Cuando regresa, los estudiantes han cambiado.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. ¿Qué paso realmente con la maestra? 2. ¿Cómo actúan los niños antes? ¿Después? 3. ¿Crees que Mrs. Pantano regresa? ¿Qué aprendieron sobre los modales? 	1
Vegetal Como Eres?	Freyman, Saxton	K-5th	Arte de escultura increíble en este libro con los productos tallados para mostrar un sentimiento o disposición de animo.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Hay buenas preguntas en el libro o permite que los niños guían la discusión. 	2

You Puedo Hacer Cosas Dificiles	Gabi Garcia	PreK-2nd	I can practice peace. I can choose kindness. I can share my gifts with the world. These affirmations are for children and adults alike - they can help us through our daily journey with positive thoughts.	1. How do you practice peace? In other words, are there simple things you might do to help other people? 2. What are a few examples of being kind? In your life, what do you do to show kindness to others?	1
DUAL LANGUAGE BOOKS
All the Colors We Are	Kissinger, Katie	PreK-3rd	In her book containing beautiful photographs showing the endless shades of skin color, the author offers an excellent scientific explanation of this natural phenomenon.	1, Can you match your skin color with one of the colors in the boxes on each page? 2. How do we get our skin color? 3. What is melanin? Does everyone have this in their skin? 4. Where did your ancestors live? How would that affect your skin color? If you don't know, you might ask some of your older relatives, like grandparents or aunts or uncles.	1
Armando and the Blue Tarp School	Fine, Edith Hope & Josephsno, Judith Pinkerton	4th-8th	Armando is a young boy living in Mexico. He and his father are pepenadores , and they dig through the trash to find things they can use to make money. Señor David sets up his blue tarp in the neighborhood and teaches the children. When a fire sweeps through, a new school is built where Armando and all his friends can go to learn.	1. How is Señor David's school different from yours? What do you think about it? 2. How do you think Armando felt when he couldn't go to school? What about when his parents said he could go? 3. How do you think you can help others who are less fortunate? 4. What have you done to help others? Do you think it made them feel happy?	1
Cool Down and Work Through Anger / Calmate y supena la ira	Meiners, Chen J.	PreK-1st	Some good strategies for children to understand their anger, process their anger, and resolve their anger.	Please refer to Page 32 through 35 for discussion questions and activities to reinforce these anger management ideas.	1

For Every Child, A Better World	Kermit the Frog in conjunction with the United Nations	PreK-2nd	Kermit the Frog introduces the reader to children around the world who are lacking their basic rights of housing, food, water, and medical help.	1. Can you name one basic need every child has? 2. Pick one of these common needs and explain how each of us could help someone who doesn't have that in their life?	1
Friends from the Other Side	Anzaldua, Gloria	3rd-6th	Prietita befriends a Mexican who comes to her Texas town in search of wood for his family. She offers him friendship and help.	1. Was it hard for Prietita to show friendship with her friends? 2. Have you ever had a friend that others made fun of? 3. What did you do?	1
I Wish I Was Strong Like Manuel (Quisiera ser fuerte como Manuel)	Heling, Kathryn	PreK-2nd	Manuel and Willie are best friends, each with their strength and each with their distinct qualities. They are both learning how to appreciate how they are different.	1. What was Willie like? What was Manuel like? 2. What is a strength of your? 3. What are some strengths that you admire in your friend?	1
My Colors, My World (Mis Colores, Mi Mundo}	Conzalez, Maya Christina	PreK-1st	Maya finds all kinds of colors in her world.	1. What kinds of colors can you find in your world? 2. What are your favorite colors? Where do you see those colors in your world?	1
My Papa Diego and Me (Mi papa Diego y Yo)	Marin, Guadalupe Rivera	5th-8th	Guadalupe talks about some of the memories that are preserved in some of the paintings done by her father, the late Diego Rivera.	Don't feel like you have to get through the whole book. You can take the time after each page or story to discuss what the picture shows and what it makes students think of.	1
My Very Own Room (Mi Propio Cuartito)	Perez, Amada Irma	2nd-4th	Six children in one family share a single bedroom, and the only girl decides the only thing she needs is a little space to herself. With the help of her family, she creates a space in the house to call her own.	1. Why did the girl want a room to herself? 2. Do you think it was hard for the family to help her make her own space? 3. Everyone in the family worked together to help make the room. What are some things you can do together with your family?	1

The Other Bears (Otros Osos)	Thompson, Michael	PreK-2nd	It all begins with a Koala bear family. Mother and Father like Koala bears but are suspicious and untrusting of other kinds of bears because they are different. After the little Koala bears play with other kinds of bears, Mother and Father realize that they are more like the other bears than they are different.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. How did Mother and Father feel about Panda bears? About Polar bears? 2. What were Mother and Father's feelings about the other bears at the end of the story? 3. What happened that changed their feelings? 	1
Play Lady	Hoffman, Eric	3rd-5th	A neighbor the kids call Play Lady is a good friend in many ways. One day, some people wrote mean things on the Play Lady's house and broke many of her things. The children in the neighborhood wanted to do something to help, and surprised Play Lady.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Why do you think Play Lady got along well with others? What did she do to show she cared? 2. What are some feelings you noticed in the story? Who showed those feelings? 3. Why do you think someone would wreck Play Lady's yard? How would you help someone who is sad? 	1
The Woman who Outshone the Sun (La Mujer que Brillaba aun mas que el Sol)	Martinez, Alejandro Cruz	5th-8th	Lucia Zenteno is a beautiful woman, and some say she shines brighter than the sun. Some people don't like her, and are cruel to her. When she leaves the village and the river leaves with her, they realize how much is missing. They apologize, hoping she will forgive them and return to the village.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Why did some people not like Lucia? 2. How do you think she felt when she left? 3. Why did things turn so dry and sad when she was gone? 4. What does it feel like when people say mean things to others? How does it make them feel to know they hurt someone else's feelings? 5. What can you do to help someone feel better when people are mean? 	1
You Be You / Siempre Tu	Kranz, Linda	PreK-2nd	Everyone is different, that is what makes life so interesting. Celebrate our differences!	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What are some things Adri learned on his journey in the ocean? 2. What did Papa say to Adri when he arrived home? 3. On the inside cover of this book, there are some sayings that might spark a good discussion with the students. 	1